A decision to combine shareholder regions must be made by the shareholders in general meeting pursuant to the provisions on amendments of the Articles of Association laid down in Article 14(2). However, a decision to combine shareholder regions may be made by the Board of Directors if the Bank Committees in question agree with the decision.

A shareholder can only be registered in one shareholder region, but may request in writing to be transferred to another shareholder region.

(3)

A shareholder with permanent residence or business address abroad is included in the Copenhagen shareholder region, unless the relevant shareholder has chosen another region.

Bank Committees

Article 6

(1)

The shareholders elect a Bank Committee in each shareholder region. Such Bank Committee is to have eight members.

Members of the Bank Committee are elected for terms of two years to the effect that half of them shall stand for election each year.

The election is held before 1 April and no later than three weeks before the Annual General Meeting of the Company, and the electoral term commences as from the time of election. Members are eligible for re-election.

When combining the Company's shareholder regions, all Bank Committee members from the combined shareholder regions will run for re-election at the next Shareholders' Meeting. The Company's internal auditors draw lots to determine which members of the Bank Committee are up for re-election the following year.

The object of the Bank Committees is to promote the activities of Spar Nord Bank in the shareholder region and exercise the voting rights as delegates for the shareholders at the Company's general meetings.

More specific rules and regulations governing the function of the Bank Committees are set out in the Rules of Procedure for Bank Committees laid down by the Board of Directors.

Article 7

(1)

Eligible for the Bank Committee are personally registered shareholders of the Bank who are of age and have the right of managing their estate and are able to document that they have been registered prior to 1 December of the year prior to the Shareholders' Meeting, or who have requested that their shares be registered as belonging to the shareholders region in question, and who still own shares in the Company registered in the relevant shareholder region as of the date when the pertinent Shareholders' Meeting is convened.

The major shareholders mentioned in Article 9(1) and employees in the Company or its subsidiaries cannot be elected to the Bank Committee.

The shareholders in the region may nominate candidates to the Bank Committee. Proposals for nomination must reach the Company by 1 December of the year preceding the Shareholders' Meeting. The list of candidates will be published at the same time as the Shareholders' Meeting is convened.

(3)

A member of a Bank Committee whose shares are no longer registered in the appropriate region, or who is divested of the management of his estate, must retire from the Bank Committee.

(4)

If a member of a Bank Committee retires during his term of office, a new member will be elected at the next Shareholders' Meeting.

Shareholders' Meetings

Article 8

(1)

Shareholders in each shareholder region are convened for a Shareholders' Meeting to be held before 1 April and no later than three weeks before the Annual General Meeting of the Company. The Shareholders' Meeting may be held over a period of several days. Joint Shareholders' Meetings may be held for several shareholder regions.

(2)

Shareholders' Meetings must be convened at not less than 14 days' notice by an announcement published in one or more of the newspapers published in the region and by notification to the shareholders entitled to vote. See sub-article 4. Meetings may be convened electronically by agreement with the shareholder.

The Board of Directors may resolve that shareholders must obtain admission cards in order to attend Shareholders' Meetings.

(4)

Shareholders who are able to prove that they are registered as belonging to the shareholder region in question at the date when the Shareholders' Meeting is convened are entitled to vote at the meeting.

The major shareholders mentioned in Article 9(1) are not entitled to vote at Shareholders' Meetings.

(3)

General meetings must be convened no sooner than five weeks and no later than three weeks before the general meeting, and the convening notice must contain the agenda. If any proposals are to be considered, the adoption of which is subject to a qualified majority, the essentials of such proposal must moreover be stated in the convening notice.

In the event that statutory provisions so require, the convening notice must contain the complete proposal and be sent to each registered shareholder.

(4)

The right of shareholders to exercise their voting rights at general meetings is exercised through the delegates. However, this does not apply to the shareholders referred to in Article 9(1).

(5)

Against presentation of an admission card, any shareholder who is registered in the register of shareholders as of the date of registration one week before a general meeting, or who has, as of that date, requested that his shares be registered in the register of shareholders, is entitled to attend a general meeting – either in person or represented by proxy – and to address the general meeting.

(6)

Admission cards are available on request by shareholders comprised by Article 10(5) at the Company's offices or at any other place specified in the convening notice until three days before the general meeting.

(7)

A transcript of the minute book, including the voting results, will be made available on the Company's website www.sparnord.dk within two weeks of the date of the general meeting.

Article 14

(1)

All business transacted at general meetings will be decided by a simple, relative majority of votes, unless legislation or these Articles of Association provide otherwise.

(2)

A resolution to amend the Articles of Association or to dissolve the Company is subject to the proposal being adopted by two-thirds of the votes cast as well as of the voting stock represented at the General Meeting. In calculating the voting share capital, shares not registered in the name of the holder or shares regarding which a request for registration in the name of the holder has not been made shall not be included.

(3)

Ballot cards with printed information about the number of votes are used for the election of members to the Board of Directors. The number of delegates desired to be elected is entered on the ballot cards. A ballot card is valid if it does not contain the names of more candidates than the number to be elected at the relevant general meeting.

Article 15

(1)

Delegates who are also members of the Bank Committees represent the share capital that has been registered as belonging to the relevant shareholder region as of the cut-off date one week before the relevant general meeting.
